Getting into the virgin princess's bed was not part of my job!

I am a great lover. I know because I take care of my women. And I pack a large tool. That's always come in handy. Pity I never find a reason to keep the women around afterwards.

Until Princess Daphne – the feisty, naïve heiress.

I've been hired as her personal bodyguard, and I've sworn to protect her with my life. A very easy task if she wasn't ridiculously sexy. I want her untouched body badly, but I know that will get me in trouble. But who says I can't mix pleasure with business?

The princess needs a little more than just protecting; she needs a man that can take care of her. A man hung like me.

PUBLISHER'S NOTE: PRINCESS and the BODYGUARD is a full-length standalone novel with a Happily Ever After and no cliffhangers! This edition contains two other romance books.

Such a great read!

By Tracy Lee

I really do love this book, I loved how both characters are facing their own problems but are also strong! I loved Matt and Daphne. A princess who is so strong willed I truly loved her character. Over all I loved the plot and the story, to be honest i felt that the end was rushed a bit, but it's okay because it was such a satisfying ending. The final break through when she just walked off was so satisfying.

Short and good...

By Sil Chil

Got through it within hours. Once I started, I couldn't stop and that's a great story in my head. It was short, sweet and there was never a moment where I didn't feel like the characters were not developed enough or the story had plot holes. I truly enjoyed it and will be picking up more titles from Mia Carson.
