Angels Don't Play This HAARP !

By Jeff Marzano

Overall this is a good book I felt and I recommend it to conspiracy buffs. The author is a serious reseacher and a true believer in 'the Conspiracy' as he calls it.

The many potential lethal uses of the HAARP device include:

- 1) death rays
- 2) mind control radiation
- 3) weather modification
- 4) earthquake creation

There are many interesting points such as an elite group within NASA has the shuttle astronauts perform experiments without informing them about the true purpose of those experiments and without training them about the type of science being used. If true this would put the lives of the astronauts in danger. I wouldn't doubt it.

As I read this book I was thinking about the dramatic rise in the rate of autism that is being observed today. He claims that Russia bombarded the United States with mind control radiation for decades using their own type of HAARP weapon. Who knows what the effects of radiation that resonates at the same frequency as the human brain can have on an unborn, still developing child.

He also implicates Russia in creating an earthquake in China that killed hundreds of thousands of people using their 'Russian woodpecker' device.

HAARP uses what I guess we would call 'Tesla' technology. Many believe that the government is well aware of an alternative form of physics which they keep out of the universities. This is an 'ether' based physics.

All of this reminds me of the legend of Atlantis. Just as the evil sorcerers on Atlantis got control of the terrible 'fire stone' and destroyed an entire continent in one day so there are evil magicians in our world today it seems messing around with similar powers.

Smith gets into some of this in the book and suggests that another use for HAARP is to discover the secret underground complexes left by the space gods in Egypt so they can use those Atlantean devices for military purposes.

However he dedicated an entire chapter to 'Da Vinci Code' type theories about what individuals and / or groups make up the conspiracy. These theories often implicate the Vatican as a key player and adversary against other nefarious groups such as the Freemasons, etc..

If there really is a conspiracy they will be motivated mainly by greed and a lust for power. They wouldn't want to, for example, make a direct descendant of Jesus Christ the ruler of the entire world. If Christ were alive today they would try to assassinate Him again as they did before.

He also criticizes the founder of the Satanic Church Of Set and says that he might want to use HAARP to create a global holocaust. But for all we know that guy is the Egyptian god Set himself. I heard Satan will do everything in his power to prevent such a global catastrophe.

Hard to read late at night with the lights out ... scary!

By Patrick Beart

After reading just a few dozen pages of this book, I had the urge to run out and buy one of those copper mesh scrubbing pads, that are sold for cleaning dishes, unroll it and use it to line the inside of my hat! The mind-control aspects are enough to keep you awake at night wondering.

The speculation about HOW this technology will be (or IS being) used is broad. I believe that it's good to know what is possible, as it prompts people to more accurately view the potential threat. However, "forewarned is forearmed."

A powerful and thought-provoking read!
