From School Library Journal

PreS?These titles are characteristic of Johnson's earlier books in their emphasis on warm, loving relationships in an African American family. In Joshua by the Sea, a young boy enjoys a day at the beach with his family; in Joshua's Night Whispers, he seeks comfort from his father when he wakes up in the middle of the night; in Mama Bird, the child discovers a nest of baby birds with his sister; and in Rain Feet he splashes through puddles in a yellow slicker and boots. The pastel watercolor illustrations that fill each double-page spread are cozy and soothing, and the language is rhythmic and quietly reassuring. Solid choices to enhance any board-book collection. ?Emily Kutler, Summit Free Public Library, NJ

Writing curriculum support literature

By Mrs.B.

Joshua's Night Whispers is one of several books by Angela Johnson that is used to support lessons in the Lucy Calkins Units of Study For Primary Writing curriculum. Joshua's Night Whispers is used to help young writers see an accomplished author writing "small moment" stories in the same way they also try to write small moments about their own lives. Johnson turns a simple, common event that could occur in any child's life and turn it into a tender story any child could relate to; especially the feeling of safety and security when being held by a loving parent.
