Great for intermediate beginners

By Dennis E Loucks

Great song book. That said it's only really good for beginners with an instructor. This does have easy to read tabs and chords, but no real notes on strumming or picking patterns that were easy to understand. With out some knowledge of notation (There are some very bare notations) an absolute beginner will struggle to play the songs as they should sound.

That said I gave it 5 stars because it is really a jumbo book of 245 songs. Most of the songs are short enough to fit on one to two pages which makes it great to just open and play without worrying about flipping pages mid tune.
