About the Author

Princess of Disks, and internationally read author, Terra LunaWolf has studied and practiced the Occult Arts for more than two decades. In 2011 she decided to share her love of Magick and knowledge of Divination in the hope that she could help others along their quests for enlightenment, and the paths of their True Wills. Her objective is to show others how simple the Divine Arts can be; she makes Magick easy. As a single mother of three, she lives a daily life as routine as anybody else's. Recognizing there really is not much Magickal about working a regular job, cleaning house, running errands, and tending to children and pets; she understands the need for these ancient Arts to apply to life in a realistic manner. She makes Magick practical for everyone. Guided by the benevolence of the Divine, she has chosen to spend her free time writing to provide spiritual counsel and instruction to those who seek it. She claims no religious affiliation of her own, because she views them all as equally valid and ultimately the same. Therefore, the Magickal Principles she teaches permeate all belief systems. Terra LunaWolf shows us the Divine Arts from their basic spiritual structure without religious attachment. She makes Magick a universal tool for everybody's use.
