Author's Note: If you love a guy who comes with his own handcuffs and knows how to use them, then you're going to fall hard and fast for Police Inspector Gray Beckham.

Paisley McCoy is a sexy reporter who writes about the San Francisco club scene for a local magazine. Having a dad on the force has led to one hard and fast rule – she doesn't date cops. She likes her men sensitive and intellectual, two qualities in short supply in any cop she's ever met. But now she's stuck with this standard-issue cop – aggressive, opinionated, and sure he's always right. In short, the complete opposite of the kind of man she usually goes for.

Gray Beckham is a no-nonsense cop who's peeved about being taken off a major burglary investigation to babysit the captain's bratty daughter, even if she is gorgeous. To make it even more annoying, she acts like the whole thing is a joke and insists she doesn't need his protection. And while she might be sexy as hell, there's no way he's going anywhere near the captain's daughter.

Despite their differences, though, Paisley and Gray can't deny the chemistry between them. But as that connection turns into romance, they find out the stalker is a far greater threat than they had originally thought. And that if he can't have her, no one will.

Erotic Mystery

By Laurel

I just read Paige Tyler's new book protective Custody.I suggest you read it early. I started it at night and was up till 2 AM because I couldn't put it down. It has a little bit of many things, mystery, suspense, erotic spanking and hot sex.

I won't be a spoiler but there are some Red Herrings.

Take me into custody!

By Amazon Customer

God how I love a good cop story. And this meets the mark. Inspector Gray Beckham is asked to protect his boss's daughter Paisley McCoy from a robber who turns out to be a murderer. He is upset to be babysitting and especially doesn't want to babysit a spoiled brat. She doesn't like cops and sees him as bossy and demanding. As expected, the sparks fly right off and Gray doesn't hesitate to give her some good old fashioned discipline to establish who is in charge in this relationship. However, the unexpected thing for both of them---they did not expect to be sexually attracted to each other.

The sex scenes are amazing and will have you squirming in your chair. The twists and turns in determining who-dunit is quite interesting. Just when you think you have guessed who the murderer is, the plot twists again.

I only wish the book was longer. But this book is worth the time and money, do yourself a favor and buy it.

Great romance!

By Jenn

Protective Custody is a great story featuring a club reporter Paisley McCoy and Inspector Gray Beckham. Gray is assigned to watch over Paisley after her office is broken into and her apartment is almost broken into. Turns out Paisley has a stalker and Gray is the perfect cop to keep Paisley protected and out of trouble.

I really enjoyed the story-line, the bit of mystery of who the stalker was, and of course the erotic scenes, especially the spanking one. I love Paige's writing style. Highly recommend!
