THE PERFECT WOMAN BY JESSE ABUNDIS PDF

A serial killer plagued with an idea to find his ideal woman, has taken to the streets of New York to harvest the body parts of the women he has romanced and fallen in love with, to paste together his perfect woman, all to end the demon inside him.

This killer is unlike others, he's avoided the attention of the NYPD by making his victims look like love struck girls, running to disappear from their lonely broken lives.

Unaware to the killer, two unlikely souls, Karen & Peewee, have taken the cause to investigate and put an end to the string of disappearances. Their search will lead them down a dark path, one that will bring Karen's own demons into the light.

But they are not the only ones that have crossed paths with the killer, Lieutenant Detective Brian Klecko was the first one to investigate the first missing victim, a case that crippled his soul and put his sanity into question as he falls deeper into a black abyss that tempts him to become a monster this world has ever seen.

In the end, nothing will ever be the same again...

Good and deadly

By Jane Reader

Good book. The title is a little misleading in my opinion, but it was a good work of macabre twists and turns.

Four Stars

By Jennifer J. Fay

It had a good story with twists and turns. I was annoyed with some misspelled words along the way.
