About the Author

Elizabeth Lennox writes contemporary romance novels featuring sheiks, business tycoons, royalty, and other sexy rich men. Her male lead characters are smart, driven and determined, but can still be sensitive and vulnerable. Elizabeth's female lead characters come from a variety of backgrounds. They are strong, intelligent and independent, while still feminine and caring. Although she wanted to be a romance novelist since the eighth grade, that dream only became a (paid) reality for her in 2009 and a full time job in 2012. Along the way, she received a BS in History and held different jobs in the real estate, government consulting, and financial industries. All during that time, though, she was always writing, using her personal experiences, dreams, and travels throughout the United States, Europe and the Caribbean as backdrops for her stories. To date, she has written over seventy books and sold over one million copies. Her free novellas have been downloaded over 2.2 million times since 2013 and her books have made the USA Today™ Best-Sellers list. Elizabeth lives in Virginia with her husband and two children. Their home is just outside of Washington, D.C., and many of her novels are set in this area.

Luna couldn't believe the chain of events that had led to her wedding day. All she'd wanted was to save her small village, to help the residents to get out from underneath their crippling debt. So she'd written to the man who owned the bank. And here she was, walking down the aisle toward a man she barely knew. A man who could make her body sing but who could crush her hopes and dreams with a few harsh words. Dassar needed a wife. The lovely Luna fit none of his criteria. She was too soft, too sweet and would be hurt by palace life. So why couldn't he forget her? Why could she get under his skin so easily? And why couldn't he simply walk away?

Good story, not too short not too long. Wished the author gave more information on the heroin past. Will be adding author to my list of favorite authors.

Not As Good As The Other Books in The Series . .

 Mild Spoilers Ahead **

I didn't like this story. Okay, mostly I didn't like Dassar. He's not a nice guy. As far as I'm concerned he's the bad guy . . . and yet she still ends up with him (and he never really redeems himself in my opinion). He blackmails Luna and treats her like a possession. He doesn't really listen to her or understand what makes her tick and he's coercive. Not even toward the end of the book when you would expect things to start getting resolved between the characters.

Another thing I didn't like was that she has to force him to admit he loves her - and he's really angry about his feelings. On the surface, this doesn't seem all that bad . . . and back when I was younger I would have thought this was an exciting coupe for her. Now I just think his behavior is arrogant and selfish. I didn't get the impression that he would eventually come to be happy that he was in love with her. I can't imagine this relationship working out long-term if he's upset (and probably resentful) that he's deviating from his normal behavior.

I liked the author's other books, but not this one. I cannot recommend this book.
