Worst Tattoos Ever is easily not the worst book ever but it surely tried for the title.

By THE AUTISTIC WEREWOLF

This is not a BAD Book but it is rather overpriced for what little it offers. This so called book is just a few bad tattoos which is in effect all it offers. Worst Tattoos Ever has a few meager laughs in it. Worst Tattoos Ever does not have a full 99 cents worth of laughs by a long shot. This book is more like a bad powerpoint presentation of bad tattoos. The picture quality is bad on the Kindle Paperwhite. Some of the tattoos while interesting are for sure not funny. There are a few sidesplitters in the book but not a barrel full of laughs by any means. Worst Tattoos Ever is an ok book in it delivers what it promises sort of and I don't feel ill used for having paid my dollar. Worst Tattoos Ever is like that carnival attraction that promises all sorts of freaks behind a curtain that you must first pay a dollar to see.

The so called freaks are always a let down but you just had to see for yourself so you pay a dollar knowing full well that what you see will be semi-lame. Worst Tattoos Ever is just the online kindle book version of the carnival freak show. The peek behind the curtain was worth the dollar if you are insanely curious but its only just barely worth the price of admission.

WINNERS OF THE DARWIN AWARDS!

Actually, although I didn't want to spend the money, the sample alone had me cracking up something great. My favorite was the girl's leg with the very large, "DON'T EVER STOP NOT GIVING UP" (or something to that affect) Makes you want to grab a sand-blaster and remove some of these horrors. It's on my Wish List.

Saw of a lot of these pictures in another one of these books so it wasn't as good. Still some very interesting answers and answers that should be followed.
